POLICY DOCUMENT FOR SCHOLARSHIPS/FREESHIPS AND FEE CONCESSIONS

The institution supports the students by awarding them with scholarships and freeships. Financial aid is provided to students not only by government but also the management and the staff members.

Objectives:

- To ensure that no admitted student discontinues his/her studies due to financial difficulties.
- To facilitate students, avail various scholarship schemes.
- To help the student apply for scholarships at various levels (Central Government, State Government, Institutional level, and Non-governmental organizations.
- To fulfil the objectives, the college has a separate committee to look after the scholarship schemes (Central Government, State Government, Scholarships / Freeships, and Fee concessions) offered by the institution.
- The Committee deals with the allocation and distribution of scholarships by scrutinizing the documents for various scholarship schemes.
- It also functions for the dissemination of information regarding various government and college-specific scholarship schemes.
- The aspirants of Government scholarships shall apply directly for the scheme on the portal and the committee verifies the application of these students.

The details of scholarships handled by the committee are

- Scholarship for SC/ST students as per Government of Maharashtra
- Scholarship for Minority students as per Government of Maharashtra
- Scholarships are provided by non-governmental agencies.
- Freeships/Fee concessions
- Freeships are also offered to the students representing the college in various sports events.
