16.01.24

Speaker: Dr. Varsha Gawande

Program : Presentation on Learning English and Global Platform

Date : 27/ 08/2023

Venue: Seminar Hall

Brief Report : A presentation was organised for the students on the importance regarding English and global platform. The interaction was about English language and how it holds global importance as a lingua franca, facilitating communication across diverse cultures and regions. It is widely used in international business, diplomacy, science, technology, and academia. Proficiency in English enhances access to information, fosters global collaboration, and opens up educational and career opportunities on an international scale. Proficiency in English can significantly broaden the employment opportunities, as it is often considered a global business language. It can enhance the students communication skills, making them more marketable in various industries and increasing their chances of success in a competitive job market. The goal to enhance English for a global platform means to focus on practicing all aspects: reading, writing, speaking, and listening. Students were told to engage in conversations, read diverse materials, watch English videos, and use language learning apps. The main aspect being Consistency is key to success. The interactive method was greatly helpful to the students.

Program Outcome: 1. Interest in learning 2. Importance of English for employability 3. Academic and professional excellence.

Program Name - Presentation on Etiquettes and Manners on 11.08.2023.

Date and Time - 11.08.2023.

Venue - Seminar Hall

Guest Speaker- Dr. Varsha Gawande.

Brief Report : The second part of the presentation on Manners and Etiquettes was based on Words ,Etiquettes and posture. Basic attire, manners and posture are very important but equally important is appropriate use of words in our communication , our etiquettes and ethics .If attire gives you the first impression then your conversational skills builds for you a positive image which can pave way for you success in professional or personal life.The rules for communication also include your tone, pronunciation and your listening ability. Etiquettes include , accepted and expected code of polite behaviour in ones professional group or in the society. The foundation of etiquette is ethics.Ethics in simple words mean the discipline concerned with what is morally right and wrong If we follow the above rules ,we will surely be a person of values .Good manners and etiquettes create a strong foundation as a morally upright human being fostering best relationships in our life.
